

AT A GLANCE QUITO, ECUADOR

The capital city of Quito boasts one of the finest collections of Spanish colonial architecture in the world. It is home to a large Indian and mestizo population, as well as those of European descent. As you master Spanish, you will study the rich history of Ecuador and be challenged by serving the social and educational needs of the many marginalized people in the city.

- Curriculum Focus: Spanish language and Ecuadorian social issues
- Local University Partner: Universidad San Francisco in Quito
- Language of Instruction: Spanish
- Credits: 12 - 15 per semester
- Housing: Homestay with an Ecuadorian family
- Service Opportunities: conservation work; introduced species and pest control; reforestation; sustainable agriculture; waste management; day care centers, elementary and high schools; teaching languages and mathematics in the community college.
- Excursions: Guided trips around Quito and 3-4 day trip to the Amazon jungle

THE INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIP FOR SERVICE-LEARNING AND LEADERSHIP