

MEKNÈS MOROCCO

POPULATION 680,000

Meknès, known as the “Versailles of Morocco,” provides visitors and residents intimate views of the unique blend of Islamic and European influences. The diverse and distinct districts of Meknès, such as the bustling ville nouvelle (modern center), ancient labyrinthine medina (walled city) and relaxing plazas and green spaces, speak true to the traditional Moroccan lifestyle. Due to the cultural and historic richness found within the walls of the city, Meknès was declared a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1996; one of eight within Morocco.

“Not for the faint of heart, in Morocco, every day is a surprise. Every moment exposes you to something astonishing. Living in Morocco will make your jaw drop. What more can you ask from life than to be perpetually stimulated?”

1. GRANADA, SPAIN

MULTI-DAY ORIENTATION EXCURSION SEMESTER ONLY

Begin your study abroad experience with a four-day orientation in Granada. Visit the Alhambra, the crown jewel of the city, a 13th-century Moorish fortress comprised of patios, gardens, palaces and fountains. Attend an authentic flamenco show or enjoy your first taste of Morocco in one of Granada's many North African teterías (tea houses) located in the whitewashed neighborhood of the Albayzín. Visit the tombs of King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella in the Royal Chapel.

2. RABAT 3. CASABLANCA

MULTI-DAY EXCURSION

Stroll through the plaza of the Mausoleum of Mohammed V and view the Hassan Tower, Rabat's most famed landmark. While in the capital city, explore the beautiful white and blue painted buildings of the Kasbah (fort and administrative center) and enjoy refreshing views of the Oued Bou Regreg estuary and endless Atlantic Ocean.

Explore the streets and neighborhoods of Casablanca, the country's economic and industrial headquarters. Stand below the world's tallest minaret (210 meters) and tour the Hassan II Mosque, the second largest religious monument in the world. This ornate mosque is perched on the Atlantic coast and provides a sacred space for over 100,000 worshippers.

4. ASILAH

MULTI-DAY EXCURSION SUMMER ONLY

Located on the northwestern coast of Morocco, this relaxed beach town boasts beautiful white-washed buildings splashed with colorful murals. While visiting Asilah, join Moroccans at this popular summer vacation spot as you spend several days soaking up the sun on the city's beaches.

Walk along the city's ramparts that overlook the rocky shores, leading you to breathtaking views of the Atlantic Ocean. Participate in the lively festivals that fill the summer days and nights and enjoy the local culture which is a haven for artists.

5. FES

ONE-DAY EXCURSION

Explore Fes el-Bali, the historic medina of Fes, the largest and only fully-preserved medieval city in the world. While in Fes, walk among the bustling bazaars, sacred mosques and learn the techniques used in the colorful dye pits and tanneries.

Known as the symbolic heart of Morocco, your excursion to Fes will introduce you to the amazing history and culture of this imperial city that resulted in it being named a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

6. IFRANE

ONE-DAY EXCURSION

Gain a new perspective on Morocco while exploring this forested community of the Middle Atlas Mountains, a stark contrast from neighboring regions. Start the day by enjoying a traditional Moroccan breakfast at the home of a Berber family. Trek through the lush hillsides amongst shepherds and their flocks and enjoy a picnic with scenic views.

7. VOLUBILIS

ONE-DAY EXCURSION

Explore Volubilis, once inhabited by 20,000 people and now the largest and best-preserved Roman ruins in Morocco. Wander the broken streets that date back to 40 A.D. and marvel at these ruins that were named a UNESCO World Heritage site in December 1977.

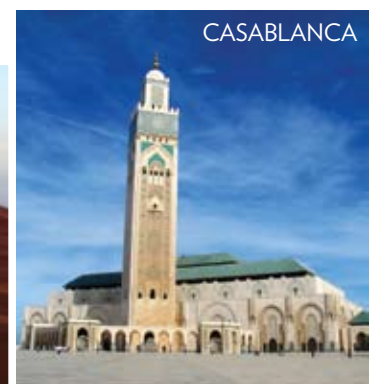

8. MERZOUGA

MULTI-DAY EXCURSION SEMESTER ONLY

Ride 4x4s to your desert campsite and enjoy a festive evening under the stars where you will dine on a traditional Moroccan meal of couscous with roasted vegetables and meat. As the evening comes to a close, curl up in the Berber tents set up amongst desert sand dunes. In the early morning darkness, hike through the dunes to witness the sun rise over the sea of sand that surrounds you as far as the eye can see. You will then enjoy a picturesque view atop a camel's back as you ride through the desert into Merzouga.
