Collegium Palatinum Heidelberg

Heidelberg's mysterious castle ruins and idyllic Old Town as well as its romantic location and landscape attracted the German Romantics in the 19th century.

They moulded Heidelberg into a myth and eternalized the city with poetry, music and painting.

Heidelberg is also home to Germany's oldest university, which was founded in 1386.

Today, Heidelberg's historic charm mingles with state-of-the-art science and technology.

It is a major business location in the Rhine Neckar Metropolitan region.

Openness and an international atmosphere make Heidelberg the ideal place to learn German.

Where learning German meets expertise!

Collegium Palatinum

Since 1958...

The Collegium Palatinum (CP) has over 50 years of experience instructing participants from all over the world in German as a foreign language.

CP offers a wide range of German courses for academic, personal or professional purposes.

Language instruction at CP is based on the European Framework of Reference for Language Learning and Teaching (CEF). It emphasizes the German culture and lifestyle. A wide range of activities and excursions are organized by CP to enrich the learning experience.

The school, founded in 1958, is located in the historic city center, only minutes away from the main shopping streets, cinemas, theaters, pubs, cafes and restaurants.

Course participants are conveniently housed near public transportation.

Course participants come from all over the world to learn German at the Collegium Palatinum
