A range of practical courses for beginners, students, graduates and professionals spanning the two great design capitals of the world.

London and Milan are synonymous with great art and design. When people talk of cities that have generated the most famous creative names and most innovative work you can be sure that London and Milan appear at the top of the list. Both cities have some of the best fashion, art and retail experiences, exceptional interiors and architecture, graphic and product design studios, and headquarters of the top design companies.

In June / July 2009 you can make the most of both cities by enrolling in a unique two or four week course in either fashion, textiles, graphics, interiors, event or product design. If you are a beginner and wish to build a portfolio or an experienced student who wishes to build upon existing skills, then there will be a course in our 2009 programme for you.

The courses in each city have been designed to complement each other so that by the end of your studies you will have a portfolio of new work that represents two different approaches to teaching, along with new friends and a new international perspective of your creative subject.

Central Saint Martins, NABA and Domus Academy have outstanding reputations for high-quality teaching and will use the expertise of full time tutors and visiting lecturers to help you progress in your chosen field.

Whilst you attend your course you will also have free time to explore these cities and enjoy the galleries, museums, bars and theatres during the evenings and weekends.
