

ELLCI

Ente Lombardo Lingua & Cultura Italiana

ELLCI has its headquarters in Milan, a city with a long tradition of culture and business, Italy's design capital and venue for many important international exhibitions.

ELLCI's courses are held in a cheerful and welcoming ambience. Classrooms are comfortable and equipped with every teaching aid.

Standard and Intensive courses
Courses for companies and professionals
Online courses
Specialist courses for business and the economy, fashion and design and university entrance.

The school is located in central part of the city, just a few metres from Corso Buenos Aires, one of the city's main business thoroughfares, easily accessible by public transport.

The effectiveness of the learning process is ensured by our teaching methodology, perfected through twenty years of experience. This is reflected in the levels of success achieved by our students from all over the world.

The teaching methods are based on the stimulus of learning through direct communication between teacher and student, taking account of his or her age, cultural background and aims.

There are six levels of language competence, in accordance with the European Community's framework for the learning of a second language:

Beginner's Italian	A1 – Contact level
	A2 – Survival level
Basic Italian	B1 – Threshold level
	B2 – Level of Independence
Professional Italian	C1 – Level of effectiveness
	C2 – Level of mastery

Come and learn Italian in Milan!

ELLCI (Ente Lombardo Lingua e Cultura Italiana) is a division of Centro Studi Formazione e Didattica (Study Centre for Training and Education) in Via Stradivari 6, Milan
Tel. +39.02.89.070.398, fax +39.02.999.82.872, Infoline +39.320.429.3027,
website www.ellci.it,
email: info@ellci.it

